Unlock humanity with lockers designed for speed and efficiency

The difference between a successful organisation and one bound for bankruptcy is the way they manage themselves and their workplace. Being able to effectively organise equipment, work materials, or even products fast is the cornerstone of running a business.

2D@2000+dr is the best locker you can find when it comes to making sure that speed and efficiency is not compromised when managing these things. This locker is a 2-door locker at 2000mm high that comes with a drawer and an adjustable shelf, perfect for organising supplies in the workplace.

2D@2000+dr is a locker dedicated to work
