

Iron @EOT

Unlock humanity with ironing units that meet or exceed your

Iron @EOT is specifically designed for change rooms and EoT fit-outs. This ironing unit provides a suitable space for the fold-out ironing board and in-built accessories so that users get a hassle-free experience when doing the job.

This is basically an all-in-one ironing system that's not only super functional but is also highly durable and space-efficient. It comes with an iron caddy and provisions for power and ventilation for added convenience and safety. So if you're worried about space but need a straightforward ironing station that takes less of it and does the job in one go - then Iron @EOT is the perfect unit that meets or exceeds your ironing needs.
