Unlock humanity with emerging locker trends that encourage a

EOT facilities are becoming more and more relevant around the world - and for a valid reason! Supporting those who choose the healthy option to transport to work - may it be cycling, jogging, or walking - only means that you encourage a healthy and more active population. Believe us when we say, we're totally with you on that!

Our Short Wave locker is an @EOT locker that's built to promote a healthier workforce, higher productivity and improved mental well-being. It comes with an ample storage spot and a comfortable hanging space, and is at 1450mm high.

Another cool thing about Short Wave is
